Your best is about to get even better. At UConn Stamford, you’ll get all the benefits of a top 25 public university in a small college setting. UConn Stamford was founded in 1952 and moved downtown in 1998, putting our students at the center of a robust business community and energizing city. Learning opportunities both in and out of the classroom dare you to achieve more than you ever imagined.

Are you ready for a challenge? Start your journey today.
Get it done here
Students seeking a comprehensive, outstanding education will find that and more at UConn Stamford. Through traditional classroom learning and unique hands-on experiences, UConn inspires you to be the best you can be. Here, you can:
- Learn from dedicated, world-class faculty
- Take advantage of over 750 internship opportunities in a wide variety of settings, from Fortune 500 companies to media outlets, community-based organizations, and more
- Gain real-world business experience and expand your knowledge with the Stamford Learning Accelerator

Love to learn
UConn’s rigorous majors prepare you for a lifetime of learning and accomplishment. You can select from nearly all of UConn’s 100+ majors, completing your first 54 credits (typically two years) at UConn Stamford and then seamlessly transition to UConn’s main campus in Storrs to finish your bachelor’s degree. Or, complete your degree at UConn Stamford by selecting from a variety of four-year degree programs.

Business Administration, Business Data Analytics, Financial Management, Marine Sciences, and Maritime Studies require coursework at multiple UConn campuses and cannot be completed solely at the main campus in Storrs. Certain programs may require curriculum across multiple campuses to complete an approved plan of study.

Take it to another level
We’ll push you further. UConn Stamford offers an array of graduate and post-baccalaureate programs.

For details, visit grad.uconn.edu.

Kick-start your student life
Our vibrant campus is a home away from home. UConn Stamford’s modern facilities provide the backdrop for a tight-knit community with plenty of opportunities for involvement and fun. At UConn Stamford, you can:
- See firsthand what goes on at elite businesses — Stamford has among the largest concentrations of business headquarters of any city in the U.S.
- Connect to the entire University library system at the Jeremy Richard Library
- Access UConn’s Honors Program, an enriched academic experience for eligible top scholars
- Choose from our 275+ Education Abroad programs in over 65 countries to expand your global knowledge
- Pursue your passions and join one of more than a dozen clubs and organizations
- Discover the vibrant restaurants, nightlife, arts, and more in downtown Stamford
- Easily visit New York City, which is just 30 miles away — take the free campus shuttle to and from the train station

Important Dates and Deadlines
December 1: Priority freshman application deadline for merit scholarship and Honors consideration
March 1: FAFSA deadline for financial aid eligibility
June 15: UConn Stamford transfer application deadline
July 1: UConn Stamford freshman application deadline

We are UConn
UConn Stamford students are part of a dynamic student body of 30,000 across the University of Connecticut. UConn prides itself on being not only among the premier research universities in the nation, but also a best value among public colleges.

Are you ready to #BeAHusky? Apply online through either the Common Application (preferred for freshman applicants) or the UConn Application. For UConn Stamford, freshman applications for the fall semester must be filed by July 1.

For details, visit admissions.uconn.edu, call UConn Stamford’s Office of Undergraduate Admissions at 203.251.8541, or email beahusky.stamford@uconn.edu.

Learn more about UConn Stamford at stamford.uconn.edu. We are located at 1194 Washington Blvd., Stamford, Conn.

Unleash your potential.